

EDITORIAL

---

Well, it's my pleasure to be one of the editors of this promising journal that aims to raise awareness about the importance of oral health. This journal gives opportunity for researchers concerning about dental field to publish and share their work in different aspect of general dentistry. The journal is an excellent platform for any kind of articles including letter to the editor, article, article review and report.

Best Wishes,

Dr.Walid Elsayed, PhD (Oral Biology),
